Surface Treatment

We believe that the surface texture of a wooden product can truly elevate its appeal and create a lasting impression. Whether you're seeking a sleek and modern look, a rustic and vintage charm, or a touch of bespoke artistry, our diverse range of surface textures will cater to your discerning tastes.

Profile&Colors

We take pride in offering a wide range of WPC panels that boast both a vibrant array of colors and diverse cross-sectional profiles. Our extensive color palette allows you to choose from rich earth tones, warm naturals, and contemporary shades, ensuring that you find the perfect match for your outdoor space. Additionally, our panels come in various cross-sectional profiles, offering versatility in design and functionality. Whether you prefer a sleek and smooth surface, a rustic textured look, or a unique patterned profile, our selection has something to suit every style and preference.

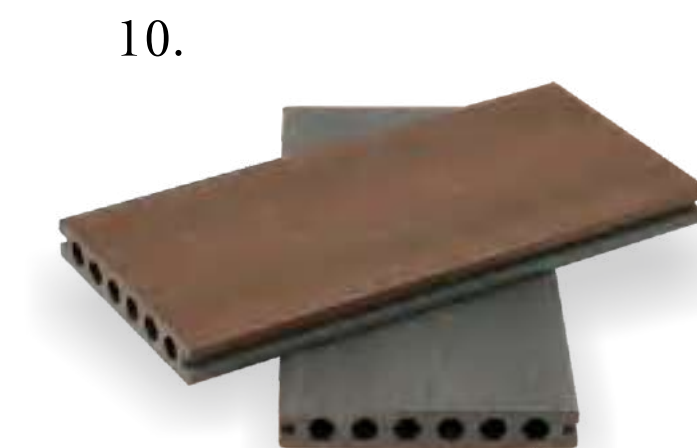

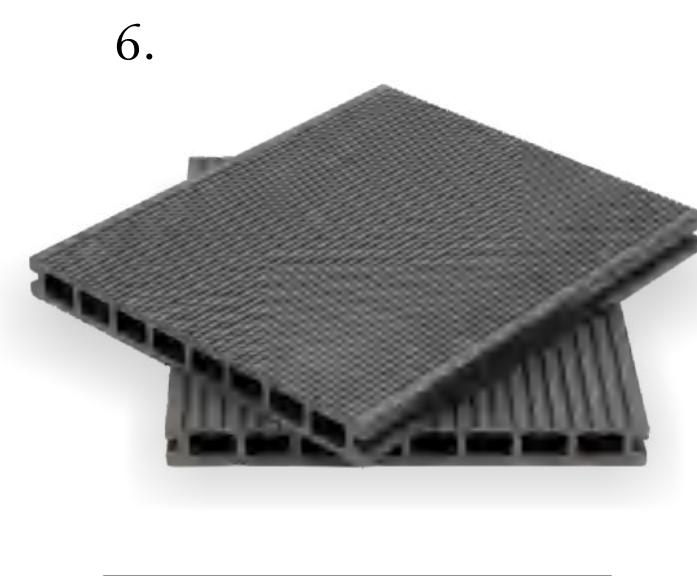

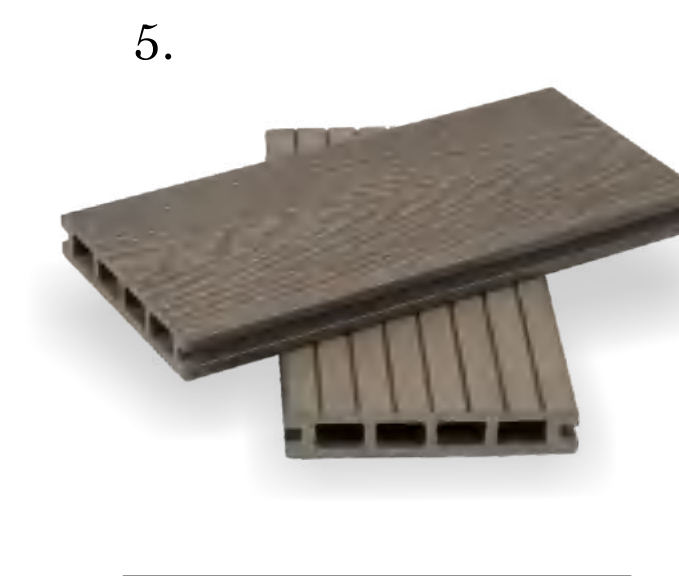

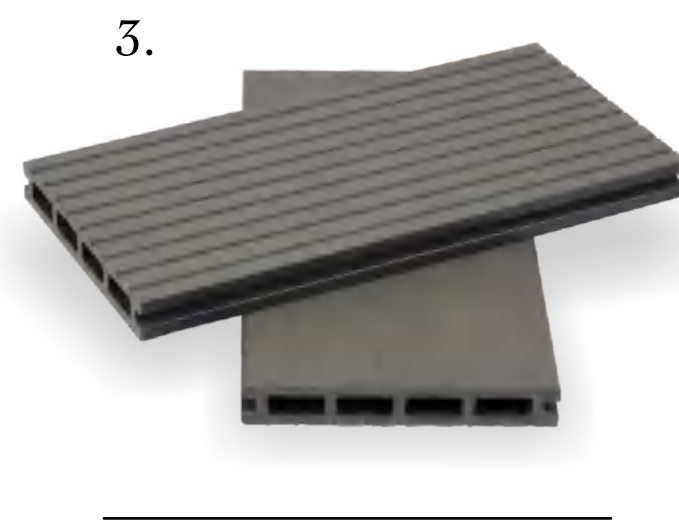

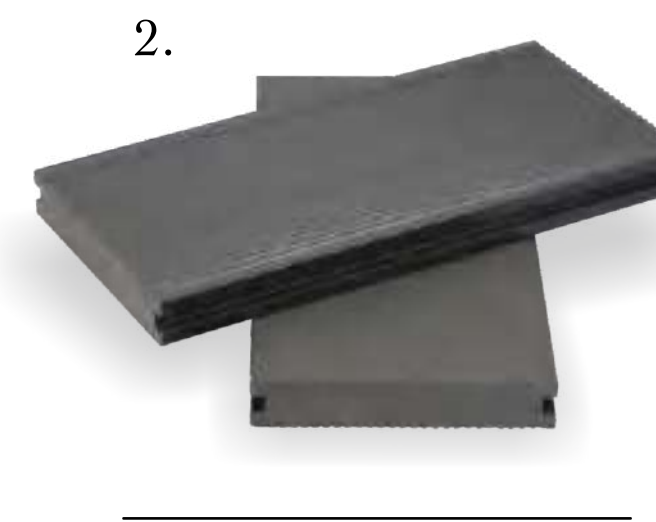

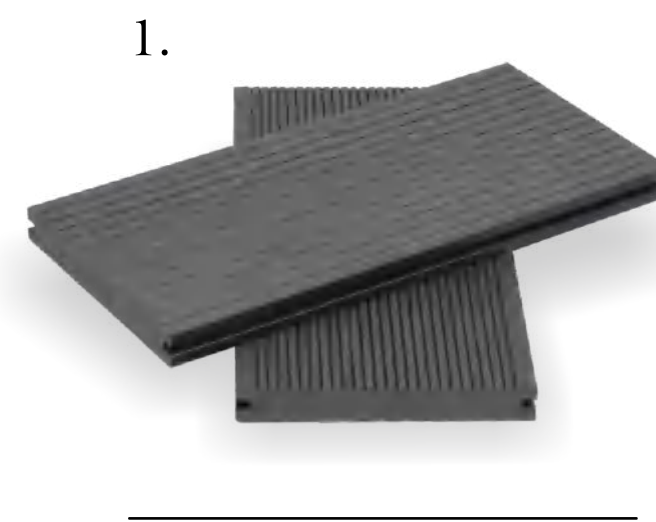

With our diverse range of colors and cross-sectional profiles, you can create a scene that not only enhances the beauty of your outdoor environment but also reflects your personal taste and vision.
